SUMMARY: This painting is in overall excellent condition. Under UV a few small areas of inpainting are evident; one patch in the upper left corner, two small spots in the upper right quadrant, and what appears to be a horizontal repair in the water lower left. There is also a patch of overpainting along the middle of the right edge. The surface of the canvas exhibits small radiating cracks throughout, as well as a few small spots upper left, but is otherwise bright and clear. The gilt frame appears to be original and is stable and also in excellent condition.
